Flourishing Together, in the love of God, to live life in all its fullness.

Headteacher update

It has been a wonderfully, sunny end to the week and we have all enjoyed more time outside. Let's hope this continues.

The children have continued to flourish this week;

EYFS have been exploring different movements in dance and the Year 1 children have been very keen to share what they have been learning about Martin Luther King Jr and segregation. Blossom class have also had a visitor from "Toddle up and sign" to support the children in their hook for their writing topic. The children experienced the story, 'We're going on a Bear Hunt' in sign language and loved it!

Willow class have had a real shock this morning when they arrived into the class room – the chairs had gone on STRIKE and the children all had to start their learning without the chairs. They children also received a message from the chairs to hook them into their writing unit.

Birch class have completed some performance poetry and have a truly amazing job of a choral reading of 'Heard it on the Playground' They used their voices in different ways to share the information from the poem. Well done everyone in Birch class – we are very proud of you all. Great teamwork.

Oak class have been looking at the geography of the UK and matching different locations to the different areas in preparation to making comparisons with another country. They have produced some very informative posters which share their knowledge of UK geography.

Our first Ash Wednesday service at St Thomas' was very special, our children and families had the opportunity to experience the significance of Ash Wednesday and to receive ashes. The children learnt all about how the ash is made, why it is important and what it symbolises. I would like to take this opportunity to thank our parents and carers for joining us. The Faith Squad have met with Revd. Helen to plan out our Easter Service, they are very excited to be leading this worship. We hope that parents can join us for this on Thursday 30th March at 9.30am. We would love to see you there.

Have a wonderful weekend and may the sun continue to shine on us all.
